

Shop Local

Local food. Local theater. Local products. We're paying more and more attention to things that come directly from our own communities. Why shouldn't your business auto insurance agent be local, too?

Everyone hates feeling like a number, and we promise never to make you feel that way.

We're local. We live here in the same community that you do. We understand the unique dangers that face our town: how Main Street curves sharply to the left, making it dangerous for high-profile vehicles, or how slippery that hill outside of town can be in the winter. Our understanding makes it easier for us to help you avoid the accident in the first place — or how to fix things afterwards. ERIE's local claims employees will help you get you back on the road.

We also know how important your company's vehicles are to your business' success: without them you can't visit clients, deliver goods and perform other critical functions.

Don't chance your business' success on an Agent who treats you like a number, or someone in a far-off city. Our agency has earned a place of honor in the communities we serve. Let us help you, here and now. When it comes to your insurance Agent, shop local. 585-394-2790
